WIS MOTHER DIED IN CHICAGO

At the Time of the Great Fire-The Elder Frayne Stole Him and Brought Him Up As His Own Son. but Confessed the Crime on His Deathbed .-- A Strange Meeting.

NEW HAVEN, July 29 .- Frank I. Frayne, the actor, on his death bed confessed a rime which reached its denonement at Silver sands, a beautiful senside resort mile east of the New Haven Light-Louse, yesterday.

Iwenty-one years ago Mr. and Mrs McCormick, prominent people of Baltinore, were visiting in Chicago with their two children, a girl aged ten years mia boy of two years. Mr. McCor-mick was attacked with paralysis on the greet and soon died. In order to have the baby provided for until the widow could make arrangements to return to ore, the child was left in a con-

Editinore, the child was left in a content in Chicago in the care of the Mosher Superior. Within a week or two Mrs. McCormick was taken suddentill, and died leaving the little daughter alone and almost friendless.

Almost on the same day that the mother died the great Chicago fire bemin. The convent in which the little mother was burned to the ground, and its immates were scattered all over healty. The little girl was sent back ad its immates were scattered all over the city. The little girl was sent back oriends in Baltimore after a time by the Chicago authorities, but the baby isorae disappeared, as they finally be-iered, forever. Every effort to find am failed. In the meantime the lather Superior had taken the boy to a suitst house in the suburbs of Chica-to, where he happened to catch the eye of the original Frank I. Frayne.

of the original Frank I. Frayne.

The actor wanted the boy to use in sensitional parts of his piays, and learning the name of his mother, sent his wife with a forged letter, purporting to be from Mrs. McCormick, asking the Bether superior to give the boy to her. The boy was given up, and soon after frame and his wife left the city, having the boy adopted as their own. Baby George always supposed himself their child, and was known as Frank I. Frayne, Ir. The woman whom he supposed was his mother was soon afterward estranged from her husband. She died in liter years, and the youth had a monument erected over her grave bearing this erected over her grave bearing this ption: "Deserted by all but her loing son."

The original Fayne soon married again, and, until he was dying, his second wife supposed that young Frank was his own son. On his deathbed, orerome by returorse, the actor told her the secret, and made her swear to restore the boy to his family, giving her the mother's name. Mrs. Frayne fatthfully carried out his instructions. She has alvertised and employed detectives by the score.

by the score.

The McCormick sister married a wealthy merchant in Oskosh, Wis., and has always sought for tidings of her lost brother. One day recently she discovited one of Mrs. Frayne's advertise-ered one of Mrs. Frayne's advertisements, and at once packed up and seaght the widow, who told her, that her brother, who was known as Frank I Frayne, the young actor, was stopping at Silver Sands, New Haven, the sameer cottage of E. J. Hasson, the heatrical manager.

On Thursday Mrs. Gannon, the sister, rached Silver Sands, and young Frayne for the first time knew that he was not frank Frayne, but George McCormick, and that he had a sister who was very wealthy. The meeting was, of course, resational and touching. Yesterday a languet was given by Mr. Hasson in celebration of the event. Among the giests were W. L. Edgerton, George B. Bannell, Colonel Prentiss Ingraham and ests were W. L. Edgerton, George B.

Frank Power, of New York. A supper man attended, and found the

LINCOLN SCHOOL'S GRADE.

Principal Jones Calls Attention to a Mistake About It.
To the Editor of the Intelligencer:

Sin-Permit me through the columns of your valued paper to call attention to a mistake that has been repeatedly made by both Dr. Pipes and Prof. F. H. Crago in the discussion going on be-tween them. A reference to the record for the school year of 1839-90 will show that Lincoln school did not have the lowest percentage in the city, as stated by these gentlemen. We were behind the other schools the last school year, but not the one preceding it. I am confident neither of the above named gentlemen would; intentionally, do us an injustice, but as it is seldom our pleasure to occupy any place but the one usually alloited to us, we beg to note and emphasize this exception.

Very respectfully,

JAMES MCH. JONES.

The contributors' tea given at the Y. M. C. A. rooms last night under the auspices of the auxiliary, was a very enjoyable as well as a profitable affair. The attendance was large and the evening was occupied by vocal and instrumental music, conversation, supper, informal talks, etc. The supper served by the good ladies was a pleasing feature. The general secretary, Mr. Ed. S. Houghton, made a report. Dr. Will H. Hall gave a talk on the spiritual department of the association. The financial condition was presented by Mr. Benjamin Exley, and Mr. T. W. Shreve told of its aims, objects, workings, condition, etc. Brief remarks were made by others. Mr. Alexander Reithmiller, the well known Hanover street butcher, and Miss Amelia Feetterer, a popular young lady, who, until recently, taught school in the First ward building, were married yesterday at the residence of the bride's mother, Mrs. Catherine Feetterer, on Carlysle street. The ceremony was performed precisely at one o'clock by Rov. H. N. Campbell, pastor of the Presbyterian church. There were no attendants. The ceremony and congratulations over, an excellent wedding dinner was served and highly enjoyed by the fifty friends and relatives present. The bride was attired in a beautiful costume and wore orange blossoms. The floral decorations, both on the table and in the parlor, were profuse, and the presents were quite numerous. The wedding was a very pretty one. The newly married couple left on the four o'clock train to spend their bridal tour on the northern lakes. They will be gone about three weeks.
